

I have subscribed to XM Satellite radio service since 1993. I am thrilled with the quality of the product, breadth of listening options, sound quality, and ever expanding range of services this technology can offer. I would be very dissappointed if the FCC would support the movement by the broadcasting industry to limit the range of services this technology can provide. Namely, local weather and traffic updates.

Sincerely,

Jim Kuelbs
XM Radio Subscriber